MURAL

Biography

INO is a Greek visual artist internationally known for his large-scale murals. He studied painting at the Athens School of Fine Arts, where he expanded his skills through workshops in photography, engraving, sculpture, multimedia, typography, and graphic design.

INO began his creative journey in 2000, experimenting with graffiti fonts and characters. His work gradually evolved into figurative painting, now recognized for its powerful themes and distinctive grayscale palette with light blue touches.

In recent years, INO has participated in art projects and exhibitions across Europe, America, Asia and the Middle East. He has collaborated with cultural institutions and global brands, including National Geographic, Christie's Auctions, PBS America, Onassis Cultural Centre, Nike, Coca-Cola, Converse, DJ Avicii, FC St. Pauli, WU Wien, M&C Saatchi, FCB New York and Katara Cultural Village in Doha.

His work has been featured in numerous leading publications such as Reuters, The Guardian, CBC Arts, Forbes, and the New York Times.
